On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Coventry City, and of course to our new signing Neil McNab from Tottenham Hotspur.

Neil cost a club record fee when he signed for us this week and the capture was the result of a long, long chase for me.

The fact that he had a couple of excellent games against us last season had nothing really to do with the signing. I had fancied him ever since Spurs brought him down from Scotland as a 16-year-old and he had an outstanding game against Huddersfield in the FA Youth Cup.

But it has been a long, hard road and I was very pleased to be able to report the signing to the shareholders' meeting on Tuesday night.

The search hasn't stopped. It is my intention to continue to look for good players to bring to Burnden Park to strengthen our already strong squad.

Picture by Bolton Evening News

I have said many times that I believe the players we already have are good enough, but it can't do any harm to strive for improvement all the time.

This week, I have also spent some time on the Continent, and at the time of writing this article I am not able to make public exactly what I have been doing and which players I have been involved with.

Injuries have still continued to affect the team selection and Sam Allardyce missed today's game because of suspension.

In closing, I would like to repeat my welcome to Neil and wish him plenty of success and happiness with Bolton Wanderers.

Welcome to...

There was a sigh of light relief on Coventry manager Gordon Milne's face after the Sky Blues had beaten local rivals Birmingham City 2—1 at Highfield Road last Saturday. For it ended a run of six games without a win and followed directly upon the previous Saturday's humiliating 1—7 defeat at West Bromwich Albion.

Coventry's slump has seen them dive from a position as serious challengers for the Championship into a place where the best they can possibly hope for now is to qualify for Europe next season. The Sky Blues dropped only one point — and that a goalless draw with Champions Nottingham Forest — in their first five games and they were then only a point behind Liverpool at the top.

Their slide began when they visited Anfield and were beaten 0—1. There was nothing to be ashamed at about that, of course, but it did seem to undermine the team's confidence and they didn't win again until last Saturday.

A further blow to Coventry's pride in the early weeks of the season was their 1—2 League Cup defeat at Chester.

A series of injuries has taken its toll on the team's performances, as only to be expected. Scottish international goalkeeper Jim Blyth hasn't played at all this season but his absence has given Mr. Milne the chance to give added experience to Les Sealey.

There have been numerous changes in defence where Jim Holton, Mike Coop, Keith Osgood, Gary Gillespie and Jim Hagan have all appeared in one of the central positions. Brian Roberts and Bobby McDonald do, however seem to have settled down in the full-back positions.

Coventry have opted for a 4-2-4 formation for most of the season with Terry Yorath, the Welsh skipper, and Barry Powell the normal choices here. But Yorath recently joined the list of cripples and this gave Andy Blair the chance to make his first appearance in First Division football. When Powell, too, was forced to drop out another young player, Ray Gooding, was recalled to the side.

The attack has undergone numerous changes but, injuries permitting, we should see those prolific scoring partners Ian Wallace and Mike Ferguson in the middle, with Tom Hutchison and Alan Green on the flanks. Steve Hunt has played several games with other of the club's reserves coming in for occasional matches.

As last season drew to a close it seemed certain the Sky Blues would qualify for the UEFA Cup and, possibly, improve upon their previous highest position of sixth place in the table. But a sad finish, in which they won only once in eight attempts, saw them pushed into seventh place and miss the chance of European football.

The way they started this season promised even better things. Then they went into another depressing period.

Coventry won their first two away games at Middlesbrough (2—1) and Derby (2—0) but they have since gained only one point in a 1—1 draw at Tottenham. They were beaten 0—1 at Liverpool, 0—2 at Manchester City and 1—7 at West Bromwich.

In spite of their present, we hope temporary, problems Coventry have made tremendous advances over the past decade. They are now in their 12th successive season of first Division play, something very few clubs achieve upon their first-ever promotion to the top flight.

COVENTRY CITY

Middle Row: Brian Roberts, Terry Yorath (Captain), Keith Osgood, Mick Ferguson, Gary Gillespie, Jim Holton, Garry Thompson, Tommy Hutchinson, Alan Green.

Usually, it's a case of two or three seasons, then relegation and, perhaps, a return to better things later.

When it is remembered that Coventry rose from the Fourth Division to the first in only five years their achievement is nothing short of miraculous. There were some pretty hairy moments, of course, when relegation looked likely but they managed to pull through and today they stand proudly alongside the biggest and best clubs in the country.

It was under the managership of Jimmy Hill that the Sky Blues rose from Division Four to earn promotion to Division One. Having achieved that, Mr. Hill retired from management and Noel Cantwell took on the awesome task of consolidating the club's position.

Though he kept the club in the First Division, Mr. Cantwell was sacrificed when they failed to show signs of winning things. Bob Dennison took over for a while until Gordon Milne came along to rebuild the team completely so that today it looks good enough to challenge for the very highest honours.

LES SEALEY (Goalkeeper). Les has earned a regular place in the Coventry side this season due to the injury to Scottish international Jim Blyth. Les, who was born in London, made his League debut two seasons ago but had made only 13 League appearances prior to this season.

BRIAN ROBERTS (Defender). Brian developed in the juniors at Highfield Road and made his League debut three seasons ago. It wasn't until last term that he began to hold a regular place, though, and then he initially came in at centre-back. These days he is usually to be found at right-back.

MICK COOP (Defender). Mick has been in the Coventry side for most of the past ten seasons. He did lose his place in 1974/75, when he went to York City on loan, but he has been back for the past three seasons. He made his League debut in 1966/67.

KEITH OSGOOD (Defender). Keith was picked for the England youth team during his early days with Tottenham and he made his League low with Spurs in 1973/74. When Coventry signed him last season they had to pay a fee of £125,000.

JIM HOLTON (Defender). Much-travelled Jim has been capped by Scotland on 15 occasions. He began his career with West Bromwich but was freed in 1971 when he signed for Shrewsbury. Two years later Manchester United signed him for £80,000 and he rose to international recognition with the Reds. Sunderland paid a similar fee for him last season, but he remained at Roker for only a few weeks before Coventry completed his transfer for £40,000.

RAY GOODING (Midfield). Ray got his League chance two seasons ago though he is not yet a regular member of the squad. Following the Sky Blues' disastrous 1—7 defeat at West Bromwich a couple of weeks ago, Ray was recalled to the side against Birmingham last Saturday.

BOBBY McDONALD (Defender). Bobby served his apprenticeship at Aston Villa and was introduced to their League eleven in 1972/73. Coventry paid £40,000 for him in 1976 and he has been their left-back ever since.

TERRY YORATH (Midfield). Terry has starred for Wales on 33 occasions and is now captain of his country. He gained his first caps whilst still in the Leeds' reserve team. It was in 1967/68 that he made his first League appearances for Leeds but it was another five years before he earned a regular place. Coventry signed him for £135,000 two seasons ago.

ANDY BLAIR (Midfield). Andy has been patiently waiting his chance to play in the first-team and he was blooded in the side last Saturday for the match against Birmingham City.

IAN WALLACE (Forward). Ian was Coventry's top scorer with 22 goals last season and he has netted three times this term. Coventry signed him from Dumbarton for £75,000 in 1976 and he suffered several injury set-backs before establishing himself in their team.

MIKE FERGUSON (Forward). Mike is currently the Sky Blues' leading scorer with five goals and he is striving to improve upon last season's final total of 17. He is a product of the club's junior sides and he was first drafted into the first-team in 1974/75.

ALAN GREEN (Forward). Alan is a former England youth international who made his first appearances in Coventry's League eleven in 1971/72. He found himself out of favour for much of last season but there are indications that he may be about to reclaim his regular place.

TOM HUTCHISON (Forward). Tom first came to notice while with Scottish club Alloa and Blackpool signed him for a modest fee in 1968. At Bloomfield Road he rapidly developed his fine ball skills and dribbling and Coventry paid £120,000 to sign him in 1972. Soon after that he was picked for Scotland and he now has 17 caps.

Mike on the move

A welcome visitor to Burden Park for the Manchester City game was Exeter City fan Mike Brady who is well on the way to completing his ambition of visiting all 92 League grounds.

Mike has travelled thousands of miles since he started his treks around the country and we were the 76th on his list.

He is being sponsored on his travels by friends who pay one pence for every club he visits and the proceeds go to his favourite club — Exeter.

A wasted journey

We apologise to our fans who made the trip to Oldham last week to watch the youth team in action against Oldham Athletic in the Lancashire F.A. Youth Floodlit Cup. The game was called off at the last minute because Oldham were unable to raise a team.

Immediately we were told of this, secretary Des McBain contacted the Bolton Evening News who included the item in their last edition.

Obviously, there were people who hadn't heard and they went to Oldham only to find the ground closed. It was something over which we had no control and we hope the incident won't have put fans off making the trek there again to support the youngsters when a new date is announced.

John Byrom testimonial

The John Byrom testimonial game will be played here at Burden on Monday night between Bolton Wanderers and Blackburn Rovers.

John, of course, played for both sides and his skill and attacking flair brought a great deal of pleasure to a lot of people over the years.

On Monday, the game will be started by Nat Lofthouse and there will be a half time penalty competition with Fred Pickering and Brian Douglas representing Rovers and Roger Hunt and Gordon Taylor for the Wanderers.

Kick-off is 7.30 p.m. and the organisers hope that there will be a good attendance to pay tribute to John Byrom.

Not surprisingly, the Everton v Liverpool derby game provided the top crowd of the day with 53,131 fans packing Goodison Park.

Next came Manchester City whose game against West Brom attracted 40,521 fans.

Top Second Division gate was 32,634 for the Brighton v West Ham game while in the Fourth Division only 1,184 saw Halifax Town lose at home to Bournemouth.

Welcome to Neil

The Chairman, Directors and everyone at Burnden Park welcome the new signing Neil McNab to Bolton Wanderers and wish him every success with the club.

Your Letters

In the past, an interesting part of your programme has been the map which you have included in the "How to get there" feature. This season, these have not appeared. Can you please tell me why?

Incidentally, I must compliment you on the quality of your programme and the price. It is good value for money.

—J. R. Atherton.

* Thanks for the compliment. The reason the maps no longer appear is that the RAC, who supply the route, are no longer able to make them available to us because of copyright restrictions.

* * *

I would like to know the modern capacity of Burnden Park now that the Great Lever End has been seated — and also can you tell me why there is no covering over the Embankment

— Steven Hartley, Hanover St., Leigh.

* Secretary Des McBain tells us that the present capacity of the ground is 42,466 split up as follows:

Embankment (home) 9,000.
Embankment (visitors) 6,000.
Burnden Stand 2,652.
Burnden Terrace 10,534.
Great Lever Stand 4,330.
Manchester Road Terrace (South) 2,750.
Manchester Road Terrace (North) 2,250.
Wing Stand 928.
Manchester Road Stand 4,556.

Letters intended for publication in the B.W.F.C. programme should be addressed to The Programme Editor, Bolton Wanderers F.C., Burnden Park, Manchester Road, Bolton.

The Manchester City goal has an escape in the 2-2 draw here at Burnden Park.
